

THE INDEPENDENT

ARTS & BOOKS

ARTS FILM MUSIC BOOKS TELEVISION

IAIN FORSYTH AND JANE POLLARD

One of Lizzie Neilson's tips, curator and head of the Zabłudowicz collection, is double-act Forsyth and Pollard met while studying together at Goldsmiths in the 1990s. Their (mainly video) work re-enacts moments of cultural importance, including a meticulous live recreation of David Bowie's last performance as Ziggy Stardust at the ICA in 1998. Recent works include the video for Nick Cave and the Bad Seeds' "More News From Nowhere", filmed in London's oldest legal striptease club, with cameos from Peaches Geldof, Will

Self and Beth Orton, and the film Run for Me, about the Great North Run, which premiered at Baltic. They're represented by Kate MacGarry at Frieze.

PLUS

- John Cusack
- The Clash
- Femi Kuti
- Simon Schama
- & much more

Golden generation

The 20 best up-and-coming artists
PLUS The complete guide to Frieze week